CAROLYN SMITH (No. 20) and Maryjane Smith (No. 35) go up for rebound against Frank Cox players in State Tournament.

STATE BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT ENDS RAIDERETTES SEASON

The Raiderettes winning in the Seminole District, traveled to Falmouth, Va. on March 10 to compete in the semi-finals of the State Basketball tournament. The Raiderettes went up against Frank Cox, a AAA school in Virginia Beach. The Raiderettes are in class AA. You can see that the Raiderettes had their work cut out for them.

The Raiderettes were backed by a good crowd from Appomattox which were eager and excited to watch the Raiderettes at this high level of competition.

In the first quarter of the game the Raiderettes were eight while Cox had only three points ahead with 11. The Raiderettes at half time were trailing Frank Cox 21-15.

The third quarter revealed a strong Raiderette comeback as they took the lead over Frank Cox with a score of 31-27.

As time ran out in the last minutes of the game, Frank Cox came back to win 45-37 over the Raiderettes.

To me, the real winner of any game is the team that can take a loss in good spirits and still hold respect for their victor.

It was a game that could have gone anyway at anytime.

The Raiderettes were led in scoring by Maryjane Smith who had a total of 28 points. Next high scorer was Jan Stanley with 6. Marion Hinze, #44 for Frank Cox was high scorer with 20 points. Teri Brothers were next with 13 points. The Raiderettes were 11 for 17 at the foul line compared to 2 for 6 of Frank Cox.

The big difference in the game were the court percentage. The Raiderettes were held to 22% by a height advantage of Frank Cox. Frank Cox had a good night from the court with 50%.

In the rebounding department Carolyn Jean Smith lead the Raiderettes with 7. Close behind her was Maryjane Smith with 6.

Even though the Raiderettes lost this game we must also remember that any team that competes in a State Tournament has worked long and hard to get there.

MRS. STEPHEN GEORGE THOMPSON
the former Miss Karen Eloise Marshall

Wed In Evening Ceremony

The marriage of Miss Karen Eloise Marshall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elliott W. Marshall, Jr. of Spout Spring, to Stephen George Thompson, son of Mrs. Cheatham Thompson of Peaceland Farm, Concord, and the late Mr. Thompson, took place Saturday evening, March 6, at 7 o'clock in New Concord Presbyterian Church.

The Rev. Peter R. Hale, of Manokin Presbyterian Church in Princess Anne, Maryland, officiated at the double ring ceremony. A program of nuptial music was provided by Mr. Daniel Stratton, organist, of Concord and Mr. Charles F. Jones, soloist, also of Concord.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of starched chiffon and chantilly lace. The empire bodice of lace was fashioned with a Victorian neckline and trumpet sleeves. The A-line starched chiffon skirt was appliqued with motifs of lace. Her full length mantilla of imported illusion, edged with lace, was attached to a lace crown. She carried a colonial bouquet of white butterfly bridal roses, stephanotis, and baby breath, showered with white satin streamers.

Miss Eleanor Layton Evans of Keyeville was maid of honor. She wore a floor length gown of floral spring print and carried a bouquet of white mums and emerald with streamers to compliment her gown.

Other attendants were Mrs. Earl R. Fariss, sister of the groom, of Farmville, and Miss Debbie Lynn Reynolds of Lynchburg. Miss Virginia Susan Marshall, sister of the bride, of Spout Spring, was a junior bridesmaid. Their dresses and bouquets were identical to the maid of honor.

Miss Amy Leanne Fariss, niece of the groom, was flower girl and Master Jeffrey Todd Fariss, nephew of the groom, was ring bearer.

Mr. Reese M. Thompson, Sr., uncle of the groom, of Rustburg, was best man. Ushers were E. Hunter Marshall, brother of the bride, of Spout Spring, and Mr. Earl R. Fariss, the groom's brother-in-law, of Farmville. Matthew D. Webb of Concord was a junior usher.

Following the ceremony, the parents of the bride were host for a reception in the church fellowship hall.

Mrs. Michael H. Torrence, cousin of the bride, of Appomattox, was mistress of ceremonies. Miss Kathy Ballagh, of Lynchburg, attended the guest book.

The bride is a graduate of Appomattox County High School and attended Central Virginia Community College.

The groom is a graduate of Rustburg High School and is self-employed.

After a southern wedding trip, the couple will live at Peaceland Farm near Concord.

Red Cross. The Good Neighbor.

DATE SET FOR WEDDING

The wedding of Mrs. Bonnie Terry Gambrel, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Edmond Terry to James Lee St. John, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth St. John, all of Evergreen, will be an event of Saturday, March 20, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon at the Evergreen Baptist Church.

Although no invitations have been issued, friends and relatives are invited to attend.

CON TERRA WOMANS CLUB MEETS

Mr. Gilbert Lusk, National Park Service in Appomattox was guest speaker at the recent meeting of the Con-Terra Woman's Club. His very interesting talk centered on "Looking Ahead in This Bicentennial Year", when everyone is looking back. Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Wiley W. Wariner and Mrs. Melvin Giles. The home and table reflected a note of years past and the refreshments were homemade peach ice cream, old fashioned gingerbread & sugar cookies, and apple cider.

A brief business meeting was presided over by our vice-president, Mrs. Jerry Kornbau. It was agreed that the club should again sponsor one of its members, Mrs. Marge Dutka, in the annual March of Dimes Pledge Walk, in Lynchburg.

Many members of the club will be attending the Virginia Federation of Woman's Club District meeting in Danville on Saturday, April 3. At this meeting local Arts & Crafts blue ribbon winners from all over the district will be judged.

Announce Birth

Mr. and Mrs. George S. Williams, Jr. of Rt. 3, announce the birth of a daughter, Laura Marie, on March 2, 1976 at Virginia Baptist Hospital, Lynchburg, Va. They are also the parents of another daughter, Roxanne.

The maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Morris and paternal grandmother is Mrs. Edith Williams, all of Appomattox, Va.

Great-grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Samuel T. Megginson and Mrs. Bessie M. Carter of Appomattox, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Montgomery of Annandale spent the week end with her mother, Mrs. Harry G. Johnson.
